

Accessing Webmail

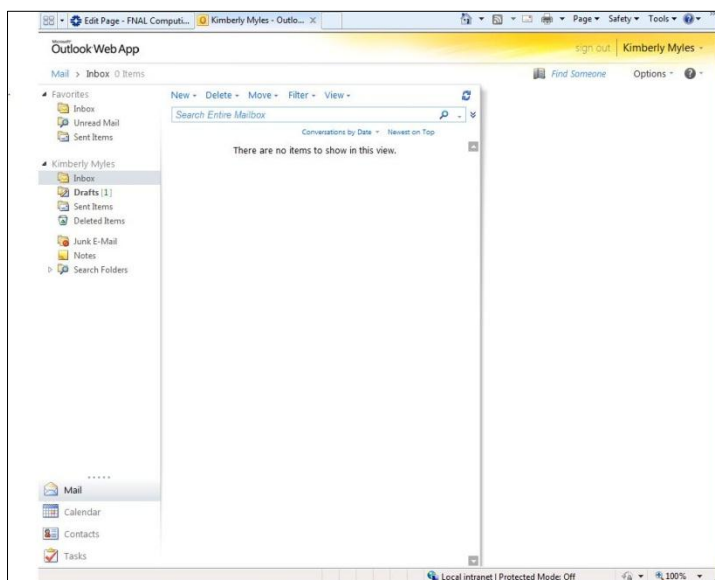

Webmail or “Outlook Web Access” mail is your desktop Outlook 2010 mail client in a web-accessible format. If you have an internet connection, you can use any browser to connect to Webmail.

1. To login to Webmail: <https://email.fnal.gov/owa>
2. Enter the username and password you normally use to access a desktop version of Outlook 2010.

The screenshot shows the Microsoft Outlook Web App login interface. At the top, it says "Microsoft Outlook Web App". Below this, there is a "Security" section with two radio buttons: "This is a public or shared computer" (selected) and "This is a private computer". There is also a checkbox for "Use the light version of Outlook Web App". Below the security options, there are two input fields: "Domain\user name:" with the text "Fermitest\kmyles" and "Password:" with masked characters. A "Sign in" button is located to the right of the password field. At the bottom, it says "Connected to Microsoft Exchange" and "© 2010 Microsoft Corporation. All rights reserved."

3. After login, your Inbox will be displayed.
